A Calzec SDK allows Application Developers to create Apps for the platform. Apps created for Calzec use a media player to access MP3 files stored in an SD card and tracks in the Calzec Media Guide. In addition, an app can also be used to manage other basic functions of the mobile phone, such as Calendar, Contacts, and Addressbook. A wide range of mobile phones can be used with the Calzec Media Guide, including phones based on the Motorola iDEN, Motorola StarTac, and the GSM phones based on the Windows Mobile Operating System. Calzec can be used with both GSM and 3G phones. It is a language which can be used to create apps for the mobile phone. The short answer is: yeah, a little. Just a little. And in the case of Proprietor's Scotch Ale, right now it's the backyards and front door taps that are delivering. Most Popular It's Proprietor's first crack at crafting a traditional Scottish ale, pared down with the skill of a big-city brewer using more than a century of brewing technique. Founder Charlie Finkel, otherwise known for his efforts at Brooklyn Brewery, joined forces with beer school grad Ben Bitterman of Atlas Brew Works and makes the best Scotch Ale in the Big Apple right now, in your local neighborhood. It's the first time anyone has tried a single-source Scottish ale in New York, but it's a twist on a country with a thoroughly American history. Proprietor's f678ea9f9e
